

Maestro Embedded

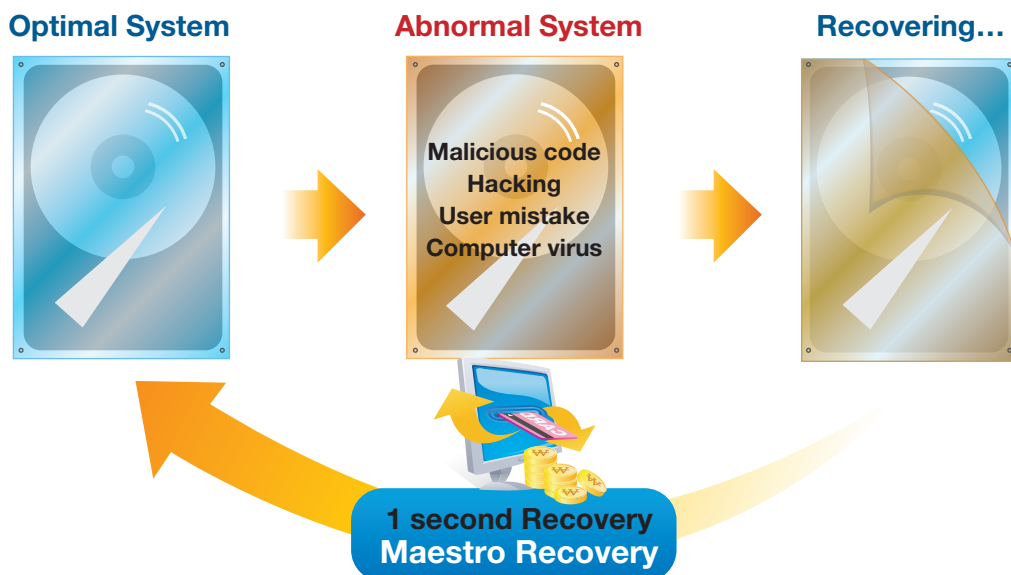

Instant Recovery Solution for Embedded PC System

Overview

Maestro Embedded, an instant system restoration software, is tailored to solve severe problems for embedded PC system; Industrial PCs, KIOSK, DID, Banking PC System. It provides complete system protection for your computer, no matter whether it is virus infection, system disorder or confusion, or data damage.

Our solution can restore your important data back right away, allowing your system to be operated under a safe environment.

Technology Architecture

Technical Information

Instant System Restoration including OS within just 1 second

Simply install Maestro Embedded, which not only can prevent PC system disasters, but also allows you to recover your program and data and system back to working condition, regardless what kind of old or new virus attack or disk format or system failure or mis-operation.

Auto-Deleting illegal software Installation by Instant Recovery

Maestro Embedded provides a protection mode, which allows user to freely test any software. If user does not want to keep the software, just reboot the computer to restore back to the previous state, and Maestro Embedded will remove it completely from your computer.

Security

Maestro Embedded provides you with password which can effectively Prevent others from using this program without permission.

Stable and Auto Support of Active-Partitioning

The user should make the new partition for data by himself by using separate partition program, and he should make the backup of data for making the partition.

Auto Support for DOS Defragmentation

The user should make the de-fragmentation of HDD to use Maestro Solution properly, and it is not easy to move the system file to take the buffer area